Bodiku's Active programs bring attention to what types of physical movement will best serve you and are most efficient for reaching your goals. They equally demonstrate the necessity of rest for overall performance.

Recovery stages are cultivated with nutritionally dense, post activity meals and daily therapeutic spa treatments.

Physical movement sessions will target strength improvements and endurance goals, including one-on-one sessions to optimise your training potential and encourage 'new personal bests'.

You will also experience a session of guided meditation and instruction in breathwork techniques, which are valuable skills to alleviate stress, enhance cognitive abilities, improve your quality of sleep and optimise a host of regenerative benefits within your body.

Careful attention is devoted to ensure ingredients are selected to nurture cellular healing, aid metabolism and digestion, and avoid inflammatory reactions within the body.

Protein sources include grass fed beef & lamb, wild caught, low mercury fish, pasture raised poultry and eggs.

To enhance cognitive performance, and address the balance of Omega 3:6 ratios in the body, we favour antioxidant rich, medium chain profile oils such as avocado, MCT oil and grass fed sources of butter.

Our talented chef will cater to your meal preferences.
